STARTERS IN THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP-A GREAT RACE EXPECTED-THE TROUBLE

WITH THE BOOKMAKERS. The spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, which begins to-day, opens the metropolitan racing season of 1889. Two important contests are to be ecided-the Brooklyn Handicap and the bookmakers' Both have been the talk of the city for weeks. From this date until October 15 the taw of the State permits bookmaking to be practised aly on race courses, and the men who follow that occupation, having passed the winter in dimined repose, are eager to resume the delightful me of squeezing the public according to the tutes. But they refuse to pay for that privilege price which the jockey clubs demand a day-for a betting stand, or $6,500 a day entire control of the ring and its prerogatives Last night they met and voted for a compromise. They informed President Dwyer, of the Brooklyn Club, that they would meet him half-way; they would give him $70 a stand, or $5,750 for the entire betting privfleges. Mr. Dwyer replied that he was willing to accept the offer, but could not do so, because, with other clubs, he had signed an agreement that the ninimum price for stands should be $80. If he could bring the several racing associations together again he might be able to effect a satisfactory settlement. Alone he was helploss.

Thus the matter stood at a late hour last night. The bookmakers individually are hungry for a slaughter of the innocents, but collectively they are determined to cut off their noses to spite their faces. They fear it would not be dignified for the Turf Alliance to submit to the terms offered by the clubs. It remains to be seen if their dignity can withstand the crushing onclaught of their cupidity. A difference of $10 a day amounts practically to nothing.

Without the Alliance, said Secretary McIntyre last night, there will be thirty-four bookmakers in the ring at Gravesend to-day. These with the aid of twelve machines, straight and place, ample facilities the public investing their money.

The Tribune's racing column has kept its readers informed of the preliminary work done by the horses that are expected to start in the Brooklyn Handicap. necessary for the writer to go furthe this morning than to express the opinion that Hanover will win. For the place Prince Royal seems to have the best chance, though Terra Cotta is dangerous. The programme is a capital one from beginning to end and sport of the highest class may be confidently That fast sprinter Britannic should win the opening race, Cyclops second.

Connemara may win the second race, with Marauder as her closest attendant. The Expectation Stakes should go to Mr. Belmont, with John A. Morris's Civil Service second.

Onward may win the fifth race, for maidens, with St. James second.

The first race will be called at 2:30 p. m. Colonel Simmons will preside in the judges' stand and Mr. Caldwell witi do the starting.

THE HOTEL MEN IN CHICAGO.

OMFICERS CHOSEN AND A BANQUET ENJOYED

BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

Chicago, May 14 (Special).-The large delegation of New-York hotel men that came from New-York in a special train last evening to attend the meeting of the Mutual Benefit Association was entertained at breakfast at Kinsley's this morning. While the gentlemen of the party were breakfasting in the ball room, Mrs. P. Willis Rice, in the absence of Mrs. Kinsley, entertained the ladies of the party in the room below. The business meeting of the association did not begin until after 3 o'clock, and an address by President James C. Matthews, of the Sturtevant House, New-York, was the opening feature. Then the report of W. C. Snow, of Chicago, secretary and treasurer, was read, and the association proceeded to discuss three proposed amendments to the constitution. At pres-cut no one but proprietors, clerks and stewards of hotels are eligible to membership, and the kies of the amendments was to enlarge the scope of the order by making any person employed in a hotel or engaged in selling hotel supplies eligible. The discussion lively. It. was claimed on the one hand that the association was falling behind and would soon be unable to meet the obligations of its insurance policies and the passage of these amendments was necessary to suctain the organization. The opposition con tended that admitting everybody would lower the standing of the society. The amendment was sup ported by the New-York delegates generally, but was finally defeated. The New-Yorkers seemed to think they did not have a fair show and considerable feeling was exhibited for a time, as was evinced by the action of Mr. Garrison, of New-York, who withdrew an amondment be had offered creating honovary mem-ourships. This feeting did not last long, however, and after several conciliatory speeches and the election of officers, the meeting adjourned in the best of humor. The officers for the ensuing year are: President, M. S. Glison, of the Preble House, Portland, Oregon; first vice-president, Washington L. Jacques, Murray Hill Rotel, New York; secretary and treasurer, W. C. Snow, Chicago. To-night the sunual banquet was half.

WORKING TO MAKE AMERICAN CITIZENS. The General Council of the British-American Astion for New-York State, which has for its object ralization of all Britons residing in the United es, held its annual meeting yesterday at No. 52 square. The general business of the last year ary and treesurer were read and approved. The folowing were elected representatives to the national on to be held in Boston on June 3: A. S. Rowden, Brooklyn; I. A. G. Masdonald, Brooklyn; I. N. Wade, New Fork: Daniel Crichton, Syracuse; Stephen Hopkins, Troy. The following officers were also elected for the coming year: F. W. Fleck, president; E. S. Rowden, vice-president; W. S. Smith, secretary; G. H. Torp, transper.

PROCTOR KNOTT BEATEN.

THE KENTUCKY FAVORITE A TIRED HORSE.

SPOKANE AN EASY WINNER BY TWO LENGTHS

-THE TRACK AT LOUISVILLE HEAVY. Louisville, May 14.-A big crowd was drawn to Churchill Downs for the races to-day, by the contest between Proctor Knott and Spokane. It was estimated at 10,000 to 15,000. Betting throughout was rather tame as compared with Derby Day. There are few here from the West to back the Montana horse. The defeat of Knott in the Derby had little shaken confidence in him. Yet the oids could not be shoved to such figure as to induce backing the supposed small chance that he would be beaten. Armstrong, the owner of Spokane, bets little, if at all. He makes a business of racing for stakes and purses. With the heavy rain up to this morning, the track was heavy and slow.

The race was for the Clark Stakes for three-year-olds, $100 entrance, $1,500 added, $300 to second and $200 to third; distance, one and ene-quarter miles. The starters and odds were: Spokane (118, Kiley), 5 to 2; Once Again (118, Murphy), 6 to 1; Proctor Knott (115, Ritchie), Come-te-Taw (115, Finnegan), 2 to 5, on the two owned by Bryant. The horses were difficult to start, but finally got off with Come-to-Taw in the lead, Proctor Knott second, Spokane third and Once Again When they passed the stand Spokane was first, Knott second, Once Again third and Come-to-Taw fourth. At the quarter, Knott took the lead by three lengths, with Spokane second and Come-to-Taw At the half, the relative positions were the same except that Come-to-Taw pulled up to third place. At the three-quarters Proctor Knott held the lead by length, with Spokane second, and come-to-Taw last. At with Spokane second, Once Again third stretch Knott was still first with crowding him closely, Half way the Spokane Spokane took the lead, under the wire two lengths lead, lown of Proctor Knott second; Once Again, third; Come to Taw, fourth. Time 2:12 1-2. Proctor Knott, the favorite, ended a very tired horse, but Spokane did not seem to be at all winded. It is generally conceded to-night that Spokane is better than Proctor Knott. A few still insist that Proctor Knott was not well ridden, and make other excuses. The showing made by the Western horse has given the Montana climate a high reputation for breeding racers, and by association has added to the favor in which California is held. All excuses to the contrary, the fact remains that Spokane has given Knott three pounds and beaten him in two races handgruning.

RACING IN ENGLAND. London, May 14.-This was the first day of the spring meeting at York. The principal race of the day was the Great Northern Handleap of 500 sovereigns, distance one mile and three-quarters. The race was won by three lengths by J. Eden Savile's aged brown horse Ringmaster Noel Fenwick's five-year-old brown horse Tissopherns was second. In the betting the odds were 7 to 1 against Ringmaster, 3 to 1 against Tissaphernes. Objections were made to the race being given to Ringmaster, on the ground that his rider, J. Turner, was not a bons fide apprentice. The judges adjourned the case in order to give Turner an opportunity to produce his indentures.

DEATH WAS A WELCOME VISITOR.

A YOUNG WOMAN FOUND LIFELESS-WERE HEB PARENTS RESPONSIBLE!

The attention of a policeman was called at 5:30 a. m. yesterday to a young woman who was lying senseless in a vacant lot close to the tall St. Barbara Flats at Fourth-ave., and One-hundred-and-stateouthst. He called an ambulance, but before it arrived the woman was dead. She had been hurt, apparently, by a fall from the roof of the flat house. The policeman sent the corpse to the Harlem Morgue and reported the death of an "unknown" woman.

Reporters learned that the dead weman was Marie Volmer, who had been employed as a servant by Mrs selling on the third floor of the flat house. She had gone up to the roof where she had left some clothes drying on Monday night, and might have fallen from the roof by accident, but there was reason to suspect that she had committed suicide. Her life had one of toll and trouble, although the was the only surviving child of parents who have a snug fortune of $75,000. The old couple live in the canton of Schaffingen, Switzerland. All of Marie's brothers and eisters died of consumption, but her grasping parents composited her to work for her living in a trange country. She came to this city after had forbidden ber marriage with a young man whom she loved. Her mother had lately coldly demanded that she pay her share of $200 which had been ex-pended in improvements on the estate. Marie's only relative in this country was said to be a cousin living at Summit and Hudson aves, Jersey City. She went to visit him on Sunday. Lately her health had not been good.

MB. OROWLET'S EMAGE IN DEMAND.

At a quarterly meeting of the trustees of the Museum of Natural History yesterday, arrangements were made for carrying on the work of the new building and fin ishing the Lecture Hall this summer. President Morris K. Jesup directed the secretary to have busts of Mr. Crowley," the chimpansee, which have just been completed, sent to the president of the London Zoological Society ; A. Peoppoy, president of the Society D' Acclimation, in Paris; Dr. J. S. Billings, of the Army Medical Museum; Professor G. Brown Good, of the United States National Museum; William T. Hornaday, of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington; Professor A. Hyatt and Professor John P. Marshall, of Tufts College; Professor A. Agassiz, Cambridge; A. E. Brown, of the Zoological Gardens, Philadelphia, and Director Couldin and Dr. Lieutaud, New-York. The busts are plaster casts of the head and shoulders of "Mr. Crowley," taken by Taxidermist Richardson, of the Museum, after the death of the chimpanzee, and they have been in much request by scientific institu-tions.

THE EIGHT-HOUR MOVEMENT.

The Executive Committee of the American Federation of Labor held its semi-annual meeting yesterday at No. 21 Clinton Place, and was presided over by President Samuel Gompers. The other officers were Senator Daniel McLaughlin, of Illinois, first vicepresident; William Martin, of Pittsburg, second vicepresident; Heary Emrich, treasurer, and P. J. McGuire, of Philadelphia, secretary. The session was held with closed doors and lasted from 10 a. m. to 7 p. m., the larger part of the time being devoted to correspondence from all parts of the country in relation to the eightpare for the expected strikes of May, 1890.

It was decided to issue a circular to be sent to economic and historical societies, to conventions of clergymen of all denominations, and to the secretaries of political organizations, expressing the principles of the eight-hour movement. Another circular will be distributed calling on all workmen, irrespective of unions, to join the Eight-Hour League. The Federation will send no delegates to the French Labor Congress, soon to be held in Paris, but recommends National unions to de so.

THE CASE AGAINST OFFICER O'CONNOR. The examination in the case of Policeman Thomas O'Connor, - the Tw mty-sixth Precinct, who is accused O'Comor, a the Twinty-sixth Precinct, who is accused of criminal assault on Eugenie Hangon, was continued before Justice Murray in the Harlem Police Court yesterday afternoon. The books of the Florence Mission were produced and showed that the girl was received. in that institution from the Magdalene Asylum on March 10. Roundsman Cooper, of the Central Office, said that he had found that the girl was admitted in that institution on February 28, which was the day on which she had said she was assaulted. Counsellor Comass said that he would prove that O'Compor was not on duty on that day, and moved for a dismissal of the complaint. The motion was denied and the further consideration of the case was postponed to Friday

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

THE MAYOR'S BOARD IN POSSESSION. THE WAR BETWEEN JERSEY CITY'S POLICE

COMMISSIONERS NOT YET ENDED. There was a calm yesterday in official circles in fersey City after the severe storm which prevailed in the Police Department Monday hight. Chief of Police Murphy, notwithstanding his summary suspension by the old board, was in his office at the usual hour in the morning ready for the transaction of any business that might come before him, and the usual morning conference with the captains was held. Instructions were issued by the new Police Board to Chief Murphy and Inspector Smith that the old board must not be permitted to hold any more meetings in headquarters. Chief Murphy caused the doors of the Police Court-room, where the meetings are held, to be locked. About 2 p. m. the five members of the old board made their appearance in headquarters with intention of holding a meeting. Finding the doors locked, they went away after being refused the privi lege of holding a meeting there. The Commissioners then went to Comporation Attorney Seymour's office and held their meeting. They nade a minute of the fact that they had been refused access to their meeting-room, and that their Murphy had threatened to use playsical force if it was necessary to keep them out, and adjourned until to-day. It was expected that the other officials appointed by the Mayor would resort to foreible measures restorday to obtain possession of their offices, but later it was announced that no foreible measures would be adopted to put the remainder of the Mayor's appointees in office, but that the decision of the court would be peaceably awaited.

RELIEF THAT IT WAS A CASE OF SUICIDE. The shooting of Captain Frederick Whittaker at his home in Mount Vernon, on Monday, was a theme of general discussion yesterday, and most of the citizens who knew him and his movements for the last three months believed it to be a case of suicide. One of the most prominent officens of the town, who was en intimate terms with the family and in almost daily communication with them, said: "My first thought when I heard of the shooting was that it was a case of general thankegiving that he had shot himself rather than his family. He seemed to be insane on the subject of Spiritualism, which he took up with two years Since then, and especially of late, he has frequently commanded that every member of his family should think as he did; his argument was that there should be harmony between his wife and children and himself in order to have close communication with the spirits. He was always of an excitable temperament, but it is only in the last two years that his manner has excited any comment or question as to his sanity His wife is one of the most charming of women, and when she haught school in New-York was noted for her beauty." The funeral services of Captain Whit-taker will be held to-night, and he will be buried in the Eastchester Cemetery. He had been a worker in the Republican cause since August, 1884, at which time he renounced the Democratic party because, as he asserted, at a mass-meeting of Democrats in Mount Verbon to ratify Cleveland's nomination, the utter-ance of Abraham Lincoln's name was followed by hisses. when she taught school in New-York was noted for THREE LOCOMOTIVES WRECKED.

An accident occurred late on Monday night in the Brooklyn, Bath and West End Railroad, at Unionville, L. I. The train leaving Brooklyn bound for Coney Island at 10 p. m. had few passengers aboard, and at Unionville it left the main track by reason of a misplaced switch and dashed into the engine-house at full speed. It crashed into two other engine-house at them out of the house and wreeking all three. The passengers were bally shaken up and narrowly es-caped serious injury. John J. Flynn had two ribs broken.

PROSPERITY FOR PASSAIC. A great deal of excitement and jubilation, with considerable activity in real estate, has been caused in Passalc, N. J., by the announcement that three important manufacturing concerns, employing in the aggregate about 2,000 persons—enough, with their families, it is said, to increase the population of the city from 12,000 to about 18,000-have made arrangement to establish themselves there. The Botany Worsted Mills Company, which has filed a certificate of incor-poration in the County Clerk's office at Paterson, with capital of $1,100,000, has bought thirty acres of land in the Dundee section, and will erect buildings, one of which, a single-story atmothre, will, it is said, cover ten acres. The McLean Mosquito-Net Manufacturing Company has bought eight acres also in Passale, and will build during the summer. The name of the third factory is not disclosed. Real estate operators and syndicates have made large purchases in the neighbor-hood of the tracts sold to the manufacturers, and ex-pect to make their fortunes.

A YOUNG BOY KILLS HIMSELF. Raymond Henion, a thirteen year-old lad, living at Ramseys, N. J., blew his brains out on Monday. When the boy had nearly finished his breakfast be asked for a slice of bread. "Get up and get it, then!"

replied his mother. To this the boy saucily replied, and his mother slapped his face. Without saying another word, the boy deliberately left the table, went to a closet in the next room, where there was a shot gun, put a cartridge in it, placed the musile under his chin and then fired it. The charge tore off one side MISS TORIN'S DEATH STILL A MYSTERY.

The cause of the death of Miss Mary E. Tobin, the handsome young woman who was found drowned on the rocks on the beach at Clifton, S. I., on Sunday morning, is still a mystery. Dr. J. I. Feeney, of Stapleton, has taken parts of the stemach to Dr. Stapleton, has taken parts of the stemach to Dr. Doremus, of New-York, to be analyzed, to ascertain whether or not the young woman had been poisoned previous to the drowning. Dr. A. S. Robinson of west New-Brighton, where the young woman had been employed as a clerk for two years, told Coroner Hughes that he linew a young man who had courted Miss Tobin, but as he was held in high esteem the doctors would not disclose the young man's name until the time of the inquest.

JERSEY CITY.

The body of the man who shot and killed himself Monday night on the Morris Canal bridge at Bergenave., was identified yesterday as that of Moritz Mayer. He once owned a brewery in Newark which was valued While Harry Lacy was playing in "The Still Alarm," at the New Academy of Music, last night, a part of the gallery was seen to be burning. A gaspipe which runs along under the gallery was leaking, and the gas running down to the burner had ignited and set fire to the woodwork of the lower part of the gallery. A still alarm was sent out, and the fire was quickly extinguished. There was no panic.

TALK ABOUT A NEW WATER PURVETOR.

Commissioner Gilroy made no changes of importance in the Public Works Department yesterday. The resignation of Water Purveyor Alston G. Culver, dated May 9, was accepted by Mr. Gilroy, to take effect on May 16. Commissioner Gilroy said that he had not yet decided upon Mr. Culver's successor but expected to name him on Thursday. It is said that the new Water Purveyor will be William H. An application had been made early in the day to Judge Martine for the release of Storrs on nominal ball.

Judge Martine said that he would fix the ball at $1,000. Mr. Johnes asked that the ball be made still lower, and Assistant District-Attorney Dos Passos consented that ball should be fixed at $500. District-Attorney Fellows suggested to Judge Martine that the defendant be released on his own recognizance. The order for his release was made. Deputy-Sheriff Magonigle immediately rearrested Storrs on an order of arrest in the suit for Judicial separation begun by Mrs. led first to the rejection of the complaint and then to

THE GIANTS FALL AGAIN.

THIS TIME THEY LAND IN FIFTH PLACE.

BEATEN BY THE CLEVELAND NINE-A MISER-ABLE EXHIBITION OF BATTING.

The Giants not only were beaten for the second time by the Cleveland team at St. George yesterday, but the champions were actually whitewashed. It ought to have been a bitter pill to swallow, but the winners of so many trophies did not seem to mind it a bit. The outcome of the game can be easily summed up. The Western men played the better game and naturally enough won. The day was a perfect one for ball playing, except that the breeze from the Narrows was rather suggestive of early spring. Keefe was expected to pitch for the home club, but he is still out of condition, and Titcomb took the place of the great pitcher. The attendance was 1,682, but as the game was simply a pitched battle of the pitchers, those sent were not over-demonstrative. Titcomb did good work, except in the seventh inning, where he could not have done much worse. Still he is not wholly to blame for the defeat, as the New-Yorkers only made two basehits, and two basehits do not win many

The Cleveland team, if it plays as it is doing at present, can hope for almost anything. The players are full of that expressive sporting term "ginger," and it is a real pleasure to watch them at work. The management of the team must be efficient and excellent. Most of the men are young, have reputations to make and are making them. The Giants had two mascots on the field. The Clevelands had Manager Loftus, and needed no other mascot.

The Giants were put out in one, two, three order in the first two innings, while the Cleveland players were almost as easily refired. The third inning was the same, not a base hit having been made. The fifth and sixth innings were devoid of interest, so far as runmaking was concerned. The seventh is generally considered the Glants' lucky inning, but it did not prove so yesterday. Up to this point Titcomb had been pitching with a wizard's skill, not a hit having been made from his curves. He lost his control of the ball in this inning, and the result was five runs for Cleve-for the seventh time, the Western players went to work in earnest. O'Brien made the first hit for Cleveland, sending the ball to centre field and bringing home two runs. Stricker also hit safely to centre, and so did McAleer, O'Brien scoring on the latter play. McKean sent the ball safely between Ward and Richardson, and Stricker and McAleer crossed the home plate. more runs were made. The score was as follows:
